

Planning and the Historic Built Environment Two-Day Conservation Seminar for Local Authorities

Tuesday 20th & Tuesday 27th April 2010

Venue: Dublin Civic Trust, 4 Castle Street, Dublin 2

Tel: (01) 475 6911

Email: info@dublincivictrust.ie

Cost: €340 (two days inclusive)

Book online at www.dublincivictrust.ie

	Week 1 – Tuesday 20th April		Week 2 – Tuesday 27th April
9.00	Registration & Introduction	9.00	Registration
9.15	Defining the Landscape and Settlement Conor Skeehan - Head of Department of Environment & Planning, School of Spatial Planning, DIT	9.15	Minimum Intervention and Sensitive Repair of Historic Buildings Frank Keohane - Building Surveyor & Conservation Adviser
10.30	Coffee Break	10.30	Coffee Break
10.50	Good Design Practice – Irish Towns and Villages Philip Geoghegan – Architect, former Senior Lecturer, School of Architecture, Landscape & Civil Engineering, UCD	10.50	Condition Inspection of Historic Buildings Fionnuala May - Conservation Architect, Fingal County Council
12.00	Composition of Historic Buildings Rob Goodbody - Planner & Architectural Historian	12.00	Historic Materials James Howley, Conservation Architect
1.15	Lunch	1.15	Lunch
2.15	Planning Legislation in Ireland - Comparative European Models Henk Van Der Kemp - Head of School of Spatial Planning DIT	2.15	Building & Fire Regulations Joe Gannon - Engineer, Architect & Senior Fire Officer, Dublin City Council
3.30	Role of the Conservation Officer and the Planning and Development Act, 2000 Nicki Matthews - Conservation Officer & Architect, Dublin City Council	3.30	Accessibility Michael Mohan - Architect & Member RIAI Taskforce on Accessibility
4.45	Close	4.45	Close